WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE ADMINISTRATOR

The Honorable William Proxmire
Chairman /
Subcommittee on Foreign Operations
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is in reference to your letter of June 19 concerning the Public Safety program. My reply is basically similar to our letter of June 15.

No programs funded under the economic assistance portions (Part I of the FAA) are or will be used directly or indirectly for the [redacted] activities which your Subcommittee has not been clearly informed in public hearings. This, of course, includes Public Safety programs funded under Part I.

In regard to supporting assistance programs in Southeast Asia (Part II), I am constrained to reiterate the position in my June 15 letter and refer -- as all government agencies -- any further questions on these matters to the Central Intelligence Agency.

Sincerely yours,

cc to [redacted]

John A. Hammah
